

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
District of Alaska

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

vs.

TONYA MARIE MCALLISTER

AMENDED JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE

(For Revocation of Probation or Supervised Release)

For Offenses Committed On or After November 1, 1987

(Original Judgment filed 11-18-2005)Case Number: F05-0029-CR (TWH)LANCE C. WELLS

Defendant's Attorney

Defendant's probation officer filed a petition on 12/09/2005 accusing defendant of 1 violation of the conditions of Probation provided in the original judgment. Defendant Admitted Allegation 1 of the Petition to Revoke Probation. All necessary hearings have been conducted. The court finds that the following violations are proved:

Accusation #	Condition #	Nature of Violation	Date	Grade
1	Special	Failure to comply with treatment	12/09/2005	C

The court concludes that the conditions of supervision set forth in the court's original judgment are subject to revocation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e); and defendant is now sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 3 of this amended judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, as amended.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Defendant is placed on Supervised Release for a period of One Year with the following conditions, in addition to the thirteen (13) standard conditions of supervision:

1. The defendant shall reside in a community correctional center for a term not to exceed 90 day consecutive days. While at the community correctional center the defendant shall comply with the rules of the center, and may be released to participate in substance abuse treatment programs as directed by the probation officer, or a work release program as administered by the center. Residency at the community correctional center may be terminated prior to 90 days, as determined by the probation officer, or this court, if the defendant demonstrates compliance with treatment and obtains housing that is conducive to sobriety.
2. The defendant will enter into a Naltrexone treatment program and will abide by the components of the program.
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment program approved by the probation officer which programs shall include testing to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol.
4. The defendant shall submit to a maximum of twelve (12) drug tests per month, as directed by the probation officer.
5. The defendant shall submit to a warrantless search of person, residence, vehicle, office, place of employment and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
6. The defendant shall refrain from the use of any alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, or consume any alcohol and shall not frequent places where alcohol is the primary item for sale, such as bars and liquor stores.
7. Upon the defendants release, from the community correctional center, either on a long term basis or temporarily, not associate with, nor be in the presence of anybody on probation, nor anybody who has ever been on felony probation. Defendant to actively seek and maintain employment when defendant is released at a time and a place that defendant can do that.

Except as hereinabove provided, the standard conditions of supervision and any special conditions of supervision contained in the court's original judgment shall remain in effect.
